

GeneraPR
Mobilization Weekly Update
July 27, 2023

Human Resources

- Continue recruitment and onboarding process for operations and home office employees (694 operations and management employees have joined Genera)
- Learning & Development: Operations trainings will commence next week, Spill Control Prevention training, Prep training on Visible Emissions, Certification and Recertification on Visible Emissions, Operating Receipt and transferring Fuel Equipment
- HR plants visits scheduled as regular.

Operations

- Continue Genera/Luma operations alignment meetings
- Repaired and put back in service Palo Seco Unit 3, Costa Sur Unit 6 and Aguirre Unit 2
- Continued meetings with FEMA, PREPA, PR Emergency Management Agency on Hurricane Season and disaster preparedness plans
- Continue meetings with PREPA suppliers to ensure business continuity
- Continue assessments of spare parts list for conditions of the current inventory
- Continue plant visits to assess site conditions around environmentally recognized conditions as well as general health and safety matters

Corporate Affairs

- Executive roundup on transition status with government stakeholders

Media/Corporate Communications/Key Clips

- Attended media inquiries on transition process, status of the fleet, outages and repairs.
- Continue social media campaign with testimonials of operations employees
- Genera PR Assures That It Did Not Request FEMA Funds For The 220-Foot Connection To The San Juan Plant (Metro PR - Staff)

View Source | View Post Below